

A PARITALES STORY

Ember's Colorful Share Day

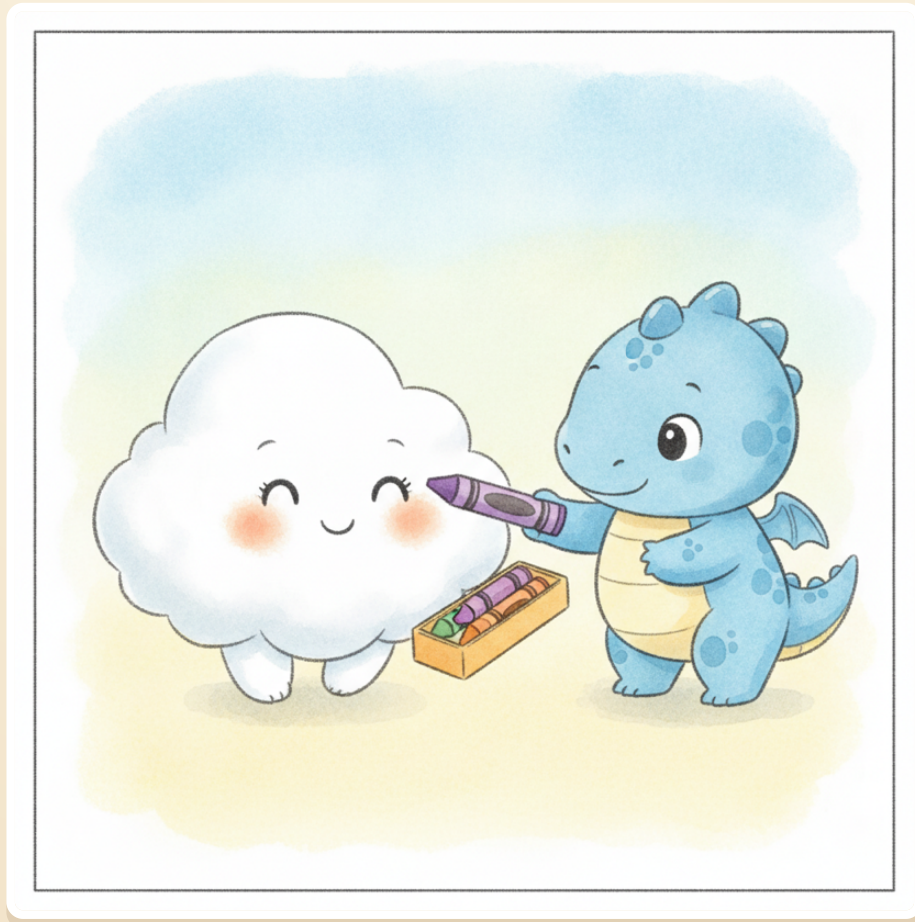

Created with PariTales

Ember the little blue dragon loved his brand new box of shiny crayons.

His friend Nimbus wanted to draw a rainbow, but didn't have a purple crayon.

Ember thought for a moment, then picked out his prettiest purple crayon.

They drew together, coloring a magnificent, sparkly rainbow.

Ember realized that sharing made drawing even better!

Soon, all their friends joined in, sharing crayons and making colorful masterpieces!

The End

Sharing makes playtime more fun and helps us make new friends. 🌈
